Qualified Dividend Income & Dividends Received Deduction

Qualified Dividend Income ("QDI") received and distributed by a fund is eligible to be taxed at lower rates. QDI is generally distributed from domestic corporations and certain qualified foreign corporations that meet certain holding requirements. The ordinary dividends that may qualify for the lower tax rates are shown in Box 1b of Form 1099-DIV. Shareholders must meet the holding period requirement to qualify for the lower ordinary dividend tax rates. To be eligible to treat all or a portion of the fund's dividend as qualified, a shareholder must have held the fund's shares for at least 61 days during the 121-day period surrounding the ex-dividend date. For additional information, see IRS Publication 550 at www.irs.gov.
